“Dress-Down Day” or Non-Uniform, Casual Wear School Events Guidelines

From time to time, the principal may permit students a “Dress-Down Day” when students are excused from the usual uniform choices. All dress code guidelines meant to prohibit distraction in the learning environment will still remain. On such days, (or during non-uniform events) students will be expected to follow these guidelines:

- Shorts, jeans, sweatshirts, flannel shirts, T-shirts, sweaters, sneakers, and hiking boots are permitted. T-shirts may not have advertisements, cartoons, phrases, or words that are tasteless or offensive in nature as determined by school personnel. No undergarments are to be worn as outer garments.
- Boys:
 - Baggy/sagging pants are not permitted. All shorts and pants must rest at the waist. Pants should be a solid color.
 - Appropriate shoes, sandals, boots, or sneakers are permitted; flip-flops and bedroom slippers are not permitted.
 - No tattered, worn, dirty, torn, or unkempt clothing will be permitted. No hats on heads in the building.
- Girls:
 - Midriff-revealing blouses, tight-fitting, low-cut blouses, spaghetti-strap tops, tank tops, halter tops, bare shoulders and the like are not permitted.
 - Skirts, blouses, undergarments, and garment lengths must be consistent with school uniform dress code policy as stated in this Family Handbook.
 - Appropriate shoes, sandals, boots, or sneakers are permitted; flip-flops and bedroom slippers not permitted.
 - Shorts must reach mid-thigh; they may be no shorter than where your fingertips touch your legs with your arms at rest by you side. All shorts, pants and skirts must rest at the waist.
 - Jeggings, leggings, and opaque yoga pants are permitted as long as a longer length shirt provides appropriate coverage. These garments and pants should be a solid color.
 - No tattered, worn, dirty, torn, or unkempt clothing will be permitted. No hats on heads in the building.

Students who come to school in attire that is deemed inappropriate will be asked to call a parent to have more suitable clothing brought for them. Such students will remain in the office until the parent arrives with a proper change of clothing. As supplies permit, students displaying a uniform infraction may, in rare cases, be provided suitable, temporary clothing by the school.

Students, please use good judgment. Be sure you are presentable for the school day. Do not be a distraction to yourself or others. Exercise the virtues of moderation, purity, and modesty. (If you think something may not be appropriate, it is likely not appropriate. Don't wear it.)
